Residents of Nansledan

Dear Sir/Madam,

Wild Bake Pizza Van

I am writing to advise that Lewis Cole, proprietor of Wild Bake, has made the decision to surrender his licence to trade from the car park on William Hosking Road. He was aware that trading there was causing concerns for some residents so is looking for an alternative location close to Nansledan.

His last day of trading from the car park will be Friday 17th January 2020.

We know that this is not good news for many of you who have enjoyed having Wild Bake on the development but we will let you know if and when a new location has been agreed.

Yours faithfully,

Tracey Nicholas
